

Cops asked for affidavit for Chhath festival leave

PATNA: Curse of Chhaati Maiya (Sun God) will befall on the police officers and men taking leave on the false pretext of observing Chhath festival, according to the warning issued by the Samastipur district police. Every police officer or man seeking leave during the four-day festival has been asked to submit an affidavit with leave petition declaring if they were found misleading the SP "ghor bipatti" (grave curse) will befall on the leave seeker and the entire family. They have also been told to file a declaration that Chhath was being celebrated in the family for many years. In all, 85 policemen have sought leave for the four-day festival beginning tomorrow. —Law Kumar Mishra

NPCIL admits to cyber attack, says no cause for alarm

DRAVIDA THAMBI
Chennai

A day after the Kudankulam Nuclear Power Plant officials had sought to reject claims of a cyber attack, the Nuclear Power Corporation of India Limited (NPCIL) on Wednesday admitted that one of its computers was attacked by a malware in September but said there was no cause for alarm.
"Identification of malware in NPCIL system is correct. The matter was conveyed by CERT-IN (Indian Computer Emergency Response Team) when it was noticed by them on September 4, 2019. The matter was immediately investigated by DAE specialists," A.K. Nema, Associate Director and Appellate Authority, NPCIL, said in a statement.
"The investigation revealed that the infected computer belonged to a user who was connected in the internet connected network used for administrative purposes. This is isolated from the critical internal network. The networks are being continuously monitored. Investigation also confirms that the plant systems are not affected," he added.
Soon after the NPCIL statement, DMK president M K Stalin tweeted, "The cyber attack on NPCIL facilities is shocking and reveals the lack of adequate safety measures. The Union Government must conduct a thorough enquiry into the lapses The National Cyber Security Coordinator owes an explanation on the preparedness of such facilities."

Cong stir from Nov 5 on deteriorating economy

FROM OUR BUREAU / New Delhi

The Congress is gearing up to focus on the Modi government's bad economic policies creating a nationwide economic crisis, mounting unemployment, heavy loss of jobs in public and private sectors and an adverse impact on India from the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP), a propose trade agreement among 16 countries, including India, China and Australia.
Party General Secretary (Organisation) K C Venugopal on Wednesday gave a call to the party's state units to take the party workers to street in the state capitals from November 5 to 15 to create a public awareness on all these issues. He said the party is also launching a media blitzkrieg from November 1 to 8 on the

The protests will culminate in a massive programme in Delhi in the last week of November issues by organising as many as 35 press conferences across the country.

He said the protests will culminate in a massive programme in Delhi in the last week of November. He said the Congress party workers will raise the voice of the people and try to make this insensitive central government accountable for the countless miseries and suffering that it is causing.

To review preparations for this agitational programme, Congress President Sonia Gandhi will chair a meeting convened here on Saturday to discuss the issues among the AICC general secretaries, state in-charges and heads of the frontal organisations and departments.
Venugopal also announced to depute 31 senior party leaders as observers to various states and union territories to monitor the agitation programme. He said they will also hold the press conferences in major towns and cities to highlight the issues.

Now, Nitish too demands a share in PM Modi's ministry

LAW KUMAR MISHRA
Patna

Following the results of the Assembly elections in Haryana and Maharashtra and comparatively poor show by the BJP, the JDU on Wednesday demanded a share in the Union cabinet. After being re-elected the national president of JDU, chief minister of Bihar Nitish Kumar said JDU should be given proportional representation in the Modi government. He said JDU has given proportional representation to the BJP in the Bihar ministry and made BJP leader Sushil Kumar Modi deputy chief minister. In turn, K C Tyagi, party's secretary general said.

On May 30, after the formation of the union cabinet of NDA II, JDU was offered one berth in the ministry, which Nitish had declined and had declared "Now the chapter is closed. There is no question of JDU joining the cabinet. We are in NDA. He had sent a terse message to the BJP leadership in May after denial of due share in the cabinet by saying, "If somebody thinks, it was the victory because of them, they are wrong. It is the victory of the people", and had declined participation in the union ministry.

Political observers here said the change in the stand of the party is because of the recent developments in Haryana and Maharashtra, where BJP had to compromise with the junior partner and entertain a regional party which was not a pre-poll partner.
Assembly elections in Bihar are due next year and with 16 members of JDU in Lok Sabha and 7 in Rajya Sabha from Bihar, Nitish wants to strengthen his base through the union ministers before the elections. BJP has 17 members in Lok Sabha from Bihar and have 7 ministers in the union cabinet.

AP: Legal action against false news

AMARAVATI: The YS Jagan Mohan Reddy government in Andhra Pradesh on Wednesday issued an order for taking legal action against "false, baseless and defamatory news", restoring a controversial G.O kept in abeyance during his late father-led regime 12 years ago.
While the 2007 order issued during late Rajasekhara Reddy's tenure as chief minister was limited to print and electronic media, Wednesday Government Order (G.O) made social media posts also liable for legal action.
The old order delegated the power to the Information Commissioner for filing defamation cases against publishers and editors, but the latest order empowered the secretaries of the respective departments as well to proceed legally and initiate action following the due process of law.
On October 16, the state Cabinet had given its nod to revive the G.O. (No.938) issued on February 20, 2007. Instances have come to the notice of the government that certain print, electronic and social media are deliberately trying to tarnish the image of government and government officials by spreading false, baseless and defamatory news with malafide interest, Information Commissioner T Vijay Kumar Reddy said in the latest G.O. The government has delegated powers to the Secretaries of respective departments to issue rejoinders, file complaints and lodge appropriate cases. —Agencies

Min's frequent tyre change triggers row

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: Kerala's Minister for Electricity M M Mani, often known for his loudmouth, has almost literally driven himself into a controversy. A reply to an RTI query has revealed that he changed 34 tyres of his car in just two years.
The 'revelation' triggered a series of trolls and even dragged a stunned Toyota as Mani uses the company's Innova Crysta.
For a change, Mani initially did not have a response on his 'Tyre Yojana' programme when reporters asked him about how he burnt so much rubber on the road. In fact, Mani was elected from a constituency known for rubber production. But later he tried to wash off his hands through a Facebook post saying he did not know anything about the tyre change as this was handled by the Tourism Department.

In contrast to Mani's 'road show', Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan, who travels more across Kerala, changed only 11 tyres in two years. The facts were revealed in an RTI sent by Kochi native S Dhanaraj. But the 'tyre scam' set off trolls with many asking Mani whether he donated the tyres to his supporters or if the bad roads were responsible. Even the Opposition Congress joined the trolls in cornering the minister. The government is yet to respond to the issue.

But when someone sent the query to Toyota, the company, in all seriousness, said it is looking into the matter. This reply was enough for trolls to have fun on the social media.

RSS leaders meet in Delhi ahead of Ayodhya verdict

AGENCIES
New Delhi

Members of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) assembled here on Wednesday to deliberate on the possibilities after the Supreme Court announces its verdict on the Ayodhya land dispute case in the coming days. Several RSS leaders including Bhaitiyaji Joshi and chief Mohan Bhagwat are attending the meet.
The meeting was earlier proposed to be held in Haridwar from October 30 to November 5.
According to Arun Kumar, Akhil Bharatiya Prachar Pramukh of the RSS, the Supreme Court is going to pronounce the verdict in the Ram Janmabhoomi-Babri Masjid title dispute case in the coming days.

MAMATA SEEKS STRONG PROBE IN KULGAM TERROR ATTACK

KOLKATA: Demanding a 'strong investigation' to find out the "truth" regarding the killing of five workers from West Bengal in Jammu and Kashmir, Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Wednesday announced that her government was providing Rs 5 lakh to each of the victim's family. Expressing "shock" over the tragedy, Banerjee promised all assistance to the bereaved families.
"Our government is providing Rs 5 lakh each to the victim's family and render all assistance to them," Banerjee said in one of a series of tweets, describing the incident as "unfortunate".
The state government has deputed additional director general of police, South Bengal, Sanjay Singh, to Kashmir to find out the details, she said.
"In a most unfortunate incident in Kashmir on yesterday (Tuesday), five innocent labourers were brutally killed in a pre-planned manner. We are totally shocked!" the chief minister tweeted. —Agencies

Judicial probe sought into 'fake' encounter of Attappadi Maoists

K RAVEENDRAN
Thiruvananthapuram

There is growing demand for a judicial enquiry into the encounter deaths of four Maoists in the Attappadi hills of Palakkad earlier this week, which most people suspect as a fake encounter.
The Kerala Thunderbolts, an elite commando force of the Kerala Police, gunned down three Maoists when they were inspecting a site deep inside the forest. A fourth activist was killed later in the combing operation.
The issue rocked the state assembly proceedings, where the Leader of the Opposition, Ramesh Chennithala, accused the Pinarayi government of following a policy of annihilation, rather than dealing with the naxals through the due legal process. He said that so far seven Maoist activists have been killed by the police ever since the Pinarayi government assumed office.
The opposition United Democratic Front members demanded that the government institute a judicial inquiry to find out the truth about these encounter deaths. They assailed the human rights record of the government and accused it of high-handedness in dealing with tribal resistance. They pressed for an adjournment motion to discuss the issue, but the demand was rejected by the chief minister.

The chief minister claimed that the deaths occurred when the Thunderbolt members fired in self-defence as the ultras fired at them and cited the recovery of arms from the Maoists. But the claim has failed to get acceptance as the security forces did not report any injuries suffered by the 'Thunderbolt' members. In fact, a tribal activist leader has claimed that the Maoists had expressed their willingness to surrender, but the security forces had staged the fake encounter to shoot them.
There have also been allegations that the elite commando force organises these encounters to justify the huge amounts of money spent on them. According to its detractors, the force has to organise these deaths to show results.

Sena blows hot & cold

Even Shiv Sena chief Uddhav Thackeray, in an informal chat with journalists, had hinted that the Sena would not stress too much on the CM's post. "We will try to get the maximum we can get," he said.
Face-saver for Sena: It is learnt that, in a face-saver, the BJP agreed to give the deputy chief minister post to the Shiv Sena. The Sena has called a meeting of legislators on Thursday, to elect its leader. This leader may be the next deputy chief minister.
As per sources, Subhash Desai and Eknath Shinde are the frontrunners for this post. Desai is a close and trusted Thackeray loyalist and this gives him an edge over Shinde. However, the elected legislators are opposed to electing Desai as their leader; he is virtually inaccessible to them. Desai had reportedly played a key role in seat-sharing talks and other negotiations. He is one of the senior-most leaders of the Sena, having worked with the party founder Bal Thackeray.
The BJP is reportedly ready to share the revenue and finance departments with the Sena. It has also agreed to give agriculture to Sena and also offered it a choice between food and drug administration and civil supplies. It has however, rejected the Sena's demand for home and the urban development departments.
As per the 91st constitutional amendment, Maharashtra can have a maximum of 43 persons in its council of ministers. Though the Sena was insistent on 50 per cent of the berths, the BJP is hinting it may not give them more than 5 per cent. "The Sena will have 16-17 ministers," a senior BJP leader said. The outgoing Fadnis government already has 13 Sena ministers, including six cabinet ministers and seven ministers of state. In the outgoing government, the Sena holds industry, transport, environment, public health, public works (public enterprises), employment guarantee and horticulture and water conservation portfolios.

Govt plan to dig up your hoarded gold

It is estimated that the total stock of gold held by Indians will be in the region of 20,000 tonne. However the actual holding after taking into account unaccounted imports and ancestral holdings should actually be in the region of 25,000-30,000 tonne. The value of this gold at current prices will be in excess of $1 trillion and $1.5 trillion, respectively. The government, it seems, is none the wiser after its hare-brained demonetisation scheme and plans to take more measures to clamp down on black money.

Tweaking of SC order unlikely: DOT

TELECOM BICKERING: Meanwhile, the telecom sector, once a sunrise vertical and the most litigious, is witnessing the comeback of old-style bickering between key operators pitched on either side of the divide. The Cellular Operators Association of India has written a midnight letter to Telecom Minister Ravi Shankar Prasad on the impact of the Supreme Court judgement. COAI has petitioned that "in the absence of an immediate relief from the government, two of the three private mobile operators -- Airtel and Vodafone Idea, which provide services to around 63 per cent of current subscriber base -- will face an unprecedented crisis".
Following the dispatch of the letter, Reliance Jio hit back at the COAI. "We are shocked that you have issued the letter, when it was clearly communicated to you that we will be providing our detailed comments by morning of 30th October 2019," Pramod Kumar Mittal of Reliance Jio has written.
Jio considers this a serious breach of trust and has alleged that the letter was sent to the Telecom Minister at the behest of two members. Although it did not take names, it is implied that the two names would be Bharti Airtel and Vodafone Idea.
Interestingly, the COAI has warned the government about a possible monopoly in the telecom sector. "Such an adverse outcome will trigger a chain of events which will result in a disruption to the entire business chain. The worst outcome of this would be India ending up with a possible monopoly in the telecom sector which will have its own adverse consequences..." it said. Countering the COAI argument, Reliance Jio has said it completely disagrees with the COAI letter and it does not represent the industry view.

Kundra is Quizzed on Mirchi deal

Though ED officials remained tight lipped about findings made from the questioning, Kundra spoke briefly after emerging out of the agency's office. He claimed that he did not have any relations with Mirchi at any point of time. "I have provided whatever information they (ED) wanted from me," he said.
Sources, meanwhile, said that Kundra, a British citizen who married Shetty in 2009, was quizzed about the investments made and interest-free loans issued by RKW Developers, a realty firm promoted by Dheeraj Dewan, to Essential Hospitality Limited-- where Shilpa Shetty was one of the directors, in 2016-17. Incidentally, Bindra is a director in RKW Developers as well as Bastian Hospitality, a firm floated by Kundra.
While Bindra is presently in judicial custody following his arrest for brokering three of Mirchi's properties in Worli, Dewan -- one of the promoters of DHFL-- is also under the ED lens in the present money laundering probe. The purported transactions between Essential Hospitality and RKW Developers had been unearthed by the ED during scrutiny of documents belonging to RKW, following Bindra's arrest, on October 11. Kundra reportedly claimed that he had sold the land, located near the airport, to RKW developers in 2011 following proper scrutiny and denied having received any loan or investment afterwards for his firm.
Sources, meanwhile, said that the agency is probing how the said land was procured by Kundra and the modes of payment adopted by the buyers (RKW) in the deal.
Bindra has been accused of earning Rs 30-40 crore as commission for striking a deal for three of Mirchi's properties at Worli, ad-measuring 1537 sq metres, with a realty firm, in 2011.
As per the ED, Bindra and Humayun Merchant, a key aide of the late drug lord, had facilitated meetings between the buyers of the property and Mirchi in the past, the agency claims.

Expect more Rain pain in next 48 hrs

Four persons were seriously injured in both the incidents. Akola, in the Vidarbha region, has been witnessing rain and thunderstorm since the last few days.
The IMD has also issued a warning to fishermen not to venture into the Arabian Sea till November 3.
thunderstorms accompanied with lightning and heavy rainfall are likely to occur at isolated places in Mumbai and the districts of Raigad, Ratnagiri and Sindhudurg in the next 48 hours," said an IMD official. The maximum temperatures at Colaba and Santacruz observatories hovered between 33 and 37 degrees Celsius, respectively, while the minimum temperatures were around 24.8 and 25 degrees Celsius, respectively, and humidity levels were 86 and 76 per cent, respectively. The IMD also issued an advisory asking fishermen to refrain from venturing into the west central Arabian Sea till November 3 and in the adjoining north and last central Arabian Sea in the next 24 hours.

Judges should not Be flayed: BOBDE

Delineating his priorities, Justice Bobde said, "The highest priority has to be justice and at no cost it can be sacrificed for anything else because that is the reason for existence of courts and if that is sacrificed, the rest does not matter; the only goal is justice."
"In that process you have to ensure that justice is delivered in reasonable time. We cannot have instant justice. Instant justice has very bad connotation. So, justice cannot be unduly delayed and it cannot be unduly hurried. It must come in due time," he said.

Facebook bans sexual emojis

Among the new things that could get someone Instagram's account flagged and/or removed are the eggplant or peach emoji in conjunction with any statement referring to obscene connotation or pictures with digital alterations and any mention of porn being available or any linking to pages offering adult material. "Sometime between September 7 and now, the new language was quietly inserted into the Facebook Community Standards, which are the ultimate arbiter of content for Facebook and Instagram," said XBIZ. The new language was brought to the attention of XBIZ by BBC journalist Thomas Fabbri, who covers sex worker issues.
